

YOUR PARTNER,
YOUR ADVOCATE,
YOUR THE SCEA

Support and Relationships

Members of The SCEA have access to some of education's most sought-after resources and supports to help them reach, teach, and inspire South Carolina's students.

Influence and Power

The SCEA believes that educators, as trusted professionals are best equipped to make decisions to ensure success. It's only when their voice is heard that powerful, positive change can happen for students.

Protection and Advocacy

Belonging to The SCEA means you never have to face any issue alone. We are here to help and support you. Membership means you can have the peace of mind to do your job with the confidence of knowing that The SCEA is here for you.

We are here with you! The South Carolina Education Association (The SCEA) is a strong, united professional association of 3.2 million public school employees who use the power of collective voice to work together on issues that matter the most for the future of our public schools. When we stand together today, we can change the future for tomorrow and are more effective advocates to ensure students have great public schools.

Support and Relationships:

- You are never alone with The SCEA! The SCEA is a supportive community of certified professionals and education support professionals. As a member of The SCEA, you belong to your local, state, and national associations.
- We are proud of our diverse membership and our ability to provide a full range of services to all our members.
- Elevate your career with our online and in-person professional learning resources that are accessible to all members. We offer a plethora of topics on classroom management, lesson planning, bully-free environments, professional advocacy and even provide a free college benefit to members and their families.

Influence and Power:

- From your local school board to the state legislature, elected officials, and people they appoint, set policies that directly affect your work with students. With the leading advocate for public schools in South Carolina, you can influence those who shape critical policy decisions on issues such as testing, evaluation, licensure, and school funding. It's our collective mission to ensure educators' voices are heard and listened to when education policies are made.
- The SCEA empowers educators to advocate for smaller class sizes, less standardized testing, input into the curriculum, and safe buildings, to name a few. Improved working conditions mean a better learning environment for your students.

Protection and Advocacy:

- Each member receives $3 million in professional liability insurance for work-related issues, and our attorneys handle these issues at NO COST to our members!
- Members can also contact our member advocacy professionals to get personalized assistance.
- Only The SCEA offers professional regional specialists who focus on educational issues and advocate on behalf of members, providing doorstep service as needed.
- Membership means you join forces with fellow educators to make a difference in students' social justice and equity issues because our children deserve safe public schools.
